

“When my wife became critically ill, the last thing I wanted to do was plan her funeral. I’d never heard of a funeral planning service until my HR representative told me my insurance policy included Everest.

When every moment was precious, the most significant thing Everest gave me was the gift of time. It was priceless.

My Everest advisor educated me on all the things I needed to know so I could give Kay a beautifully customized service. She helped me take care of everything – from the funeral home, cemetery and casket selection to making sure her service at our church was flawless. With her guidance, I had the information I needed to make smart financial decisions, while still honoring Kay. Everest was an incredible help to me in the loss of my wife, and I could not be more pleased with the exceptional, caring service I received.”

Scott Lamont, Everest client

